COURT WILL DECIDE.

Judge Taft, of Cincinnati, Is Asked to Settle the Election Controversy.

REPUBLICANS APPEAR IN COURT

And Ask for a Restraining Order Against the Election Board

And the Contestants for State Offices Other Than Governor and Lieutenant Governor—Funeral Services of Goebel Are Held in Frankfort—Dead Man's Brother Issues an Address—Acts of the Legislative Session at London Are Kept Secret.

Cincinnati, Feb. 9.—Judge William H. Taft, who has just been appointed as president of the new Philippine commission, yesterday gave notice to counsel that on next Monday at 2 p. m. he would hear arguments on the petition of the state officers of Kentucky other than governor and lieutenant governor for a restraining order against the three members of the Kentucky state board of election commissioners and the contestants for state offices other than those of governor and lieutentant governor.

Will Not Conflict with Agreement.

The legislature in Kentucky hears and decides contests for governor and lieutenant governor, but the contests for other state officers come before the state board of election commissioners, sitting as a contest board, and in which said board has final jurisdiction. This petition for an injunction against the present state board of election commissioners and the Democratic contestants for minor state offices is therefore not one affecting Governor Taylor and Lieutenant Governor Marshall and will not conflict with the conferences for an agreement that were begun at Louisville last Monday and which are still in progress at that city and at Frankfort.

Will Hear Arguments Feb. 12.

Bradley and Mackoy called on Judge Taft yesterday. After a conference of less than an hour the judge announced that he would hear arguments on the petition on Monday, Feb. 12, at 2 p. m., and that the defendants and their counsel shold be furnished with copies of the petition in the meantime. It is understood that the petitions recite the history of the election of last November, in the case of each of the state minor officers, the returns from 119 county boards and the canvassing of the same by the state board, the issuing of certificates of election to the incumbents by said state board, the subsequent reorganization of the state board which canvassed the vote before it met as a board of contest and about all that has gone on in the political controversies of Kentucky this year.

May Change Petition Before Monday.

Several copies have been made of the petition for counsel on both sides and one of the reasons for not giving it out last night is that there may be changes in it before next Monday. The attorneys continued their consulation here during the night and were making elaborate interlineations. They will take copies with them and other changes may be made as late as Monday morning. The attorneys all stated that they would leave this morning, some for Frankfort and some for Louisville, and others for their respective homes, and they all expect to return here on Monday when there will be a large number of attorneys in the United States court on both sides. It is understood that Bradley, Wilson and Mackoy will make arguments for the plaintiffs. The counsel for the state board of elections and the Democratic contestants is not as yet known.

SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

Both Branches Meet in Secret and Give Out No News.

London, Ky., Feb. 9.—At 1:05 p. m. the senate in executive session adjourned until today noon. The senators would not reveal what had traspired other than that no resolutions were adopted. At 1:10 p. m. the house executive session ended and an open session was resumed. The following telegram from Frankfort was read: "Taylor has not signed; some say he will not; Collier is purchasing ammunition." At 1:15 p. m. the house adjourned until 10 o'clock today.

The members of the house absolutely refused to say what had taken place in the secret meeting. The senate required six more for a quorum. It is understood that the sergeant-at-arms have been furnished lists of absentees to be sent for. Both houses appointed committees to draft resolutions on the death of former Representative Speed Smith, of Richmond.

ISSUES AN OPEN LETTER.

Justin Goebel Wants the People to Fight for His Brother's Principles.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 9.—Justin Goebel last night issued the following open letter: "My Friends—In closing these last sad rites, and before the mortal remains of the kindest, gentlest, most loving of sons and brothers be consigned to their final resting place, I want to say a last word. Your friend, my brother, lies dead before you, murdered for his devotion to the cause of the people.

"Should not Kentucky now and here swear by his blood that her sons will see justice done to those concerned in his foul taking off? If you fail in this then your laws are dead letters. If he could speak he would say now, as oft before, 'Let the law take its course.' Will designing men of high station be permitted to use the ignorant outlaw to further their ambitions and when that ambition is disappointed turn redhanded murder loose under the very roof of the executive mansion?

"Shall the guilty in high places be uncovered? Shall the honor of your state be restored? Or shall his life blood spilt on your capital square be dried up by the sun, washed away by the rains and his life sacrifice be forgotten? Measured by the highest standard of man, the grandest tribute possible to be paid him, to whom you have been so loyal, is to fight for the principles for which he laid down his life as he fought for them."

SERVICES OVER GOEBEL

Are Held in the Frankfort Cemetery in a Drizzling Rain.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 9.—Rain came down in sheets yesterday while the funeral services were being held over the body of Kentucky's dead Democratic leader. The morning dawned dark, and threatening, but at 9 o'clock the clouds cleared away and the sun came out bright and brilliant, and there was every promise of a pleasant day. The prospect was short-lived, however, for just as the hour for the formation of the funeral procession arrived the rain began to fall slowly at first, but with ever-increasing rapidity, until shortly after the hour of noon, when the parade was on the march, the flood began to descend.

There were dry intervals but after them the water came again with increased vidiousness and just as the hearse left the Capitol hotel a heavy shower began which continued all through the afternoon. The exercises in the cemetery were conducted before a crowd much smaller than would have been the case had the weather been pleasant, but they were carried out to the letter, and last night the body of William Goebel laid in the chapel of the Frankfort cemetery after one of the greatest funeral demonstrations ever seen in this state. As soon as the weather clears sufficiently the casket will be consigned to the grave.

It had been feared that there might arise trouble between the soldiers in the capitol grounds and Democratic partisans in the line of march when the parade passed the capitol square, but nothing of the kind occurred. The soldiers were kept back on the level with the front of the capitol building, and a line of sentries was posted in front of them to prevent them from going near the fence on the south side of the ground at the time the parade was passing the square.

IN MONTANA POLITICS.

Gov. Hauser Tells the Senate Committee How Money Is Used.

Washington, Feb. 9. — Senator Clark's managers occupied the witness stand throughout the day in the investigation which the senate committee on privileges and elections is conducting into the election of the senator from Montana. Bickford concluded his testimony and he was followed in succession by Frank E. Corbett, Clark's principal counsel in Montana; ex-Gov. S. T. Hauser, A. J. Davidson and A. J. Steele. Messrs. Davidson and Steele were identified with Clark's campaign, Davidson being one of a committee of three having the matter especially in charge.

He said he had spent $21,000 in the legislative campaign and $5,000 in trying to influence the legislators for Clark. The expenditure, he declared, was all legitimate. Governor Hauser's testimony related generally to the use of money in Montana politics. He claimed to have been instrumental in getting Clark to enter the senatorial race, saying Clark had been loth to do so because of the expense. Hauser said that in the neighborhood of a million dollars had been spent in the fight over the location of the capital in that state.

BRITISH TRANSPORTS LOADING.

Vessels Now at New York Will Carry Provisions to South Africa.

New York, Feb. 9.—Three steamships that are pratically, if not actually British transports, have arrived in port. They are the Dominico Larriniga, the Barton and the Hyanthes. The former two will load in Brooklyn and the latter at Jersey City. All three will take on cargoes of cavalry feed. They register in the neighborhood of 3,600 tons each and will carry about 120,000 bushels of eats and 20,000 bales of hay apiece

The steamship St. Dunstan sailed yesterday for South Africa loaded almost entirely with flour, wheat and provisions of which she carries over 6,000 tons. The Bucentaur, now loading, is taking on a similar cargo of about 5,000 tons.

Molineux Case Adjourned.

New York, Feb. 9.—The case of Roland B. Molineux, charged with the murder of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams, did not go to the jury as had been hoped. Juror Manheim Brown, whose illness had already delayed the trial two weeks, was taken ill with indigestion at the noon recess yesterday and was unable to return to the court during the afternoon. His illness is not serious, however, and the trial will go on today, in all likelihood.

Bryan Speaks at Burlington.

Burlington, N. J., Feb. 9.—Bryan was enthusiastically greeted by a large crowd and a brass band. He was entertained at dinner by the reception committee, after which he rested for half an hour. Riggs hall, where Bryan spoke yesterday afternoon, was jammed with people long before he made his appearance on the platform and many persons were unable to gain admittance.

Hanged for Murder.

Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 9.—William Truesdale, colored, was hanged in the jail yard here yesterday for the murder of his sweetheart a year ago. He had to be taken to the scaffold, being overcome with fright. He protested his innocence to the last.

LONDON IS IN DOUBT

As to Whether General Buller's Latest Move Will Be Successful.

CASUALTIES AT POTGIETER'S DRIFT

Remind the English Public That There Are Tremendous Difficulties To Be Overcome Before the Relief of Ladysmith Is Accomplished — British Troops Are Smarting Under Defeat and Will Make a Hard Fight.

London, Feb. 9.—A dispatch to The Morning P ost f rom Ladysmith, dated Tuesday, Feb. 6, says: "Little can be seen of Gen. Buller's action, owing to the haze. It appears that the Boers have iwthdrawn their big guns from the hills here southward.

London, Feb. 9.—The Daily Telegraph has received the following dispatch, dated Tuesday, Feb. 6, from Spearman's Camp: "This is the second day of the battle and the fighting has been fiercer than it was yesterday. At dawn the Boers began the action by shelling our bivouac with their long Tom."

"Relief Is Certain."

London, Feb. 9.—A cable dispatch received in this city from Spearman's Camp, under today's date, says: "Buller holds his position. Relief is certain."

British Casualties.

London, Feb. 9.—General Buller has cabled to the war office that the approximate British casualties in the fighting at Potigeter's drift up to noon Tuesday are: Officers, two killed and fifteen wounded; non-commissioned officers and men, 216 killed and wounded.

His Third Attempt.

Presumably General Buller is fighting again today in his third attempt to relive Ladysmith, and news of the greatest import may arrive at any moment. Yet here there is more doubt than exultation, for, even if the recollection of General Buller's two disastrous failures after auspicious starts were not keen in the minds of the public, the list of casualties published today would be a sufficient reminder of the tremendous difficulties of his task.

May Not Join Hands.

His occupation of Vaal Krantz, the key to the lower ridges, while a praiseworthy and gallant achievement, by no means signifies that he and General White will inevitably join hands. Before General Buller there are several days of hard fighting, and any attempt to forecast the result would be valueless. If based on precedents, which can hardly be done in warfare, it would be bound to be in favor of the Boers, for, apparently, the conditions have not materially altered since the last fruitless attempt.

Will Make a Desperate Fight.

On the other hand the British troops are smarting under defeat and undoubtedly will be nerved to more desperate efforts than ever before, and if furious gallantry can carry General Buller over the kopjes that face him Ladysmith will be relieved within a week. But, so far, British bravery has been in the main woefully misguided.

SHELLING STILL CONTINUES.

Boers Are Making Trenches in Front of Magersfontein.

Rensberg, Feb. 8.—The Boers' position was vigorously shelled with lyddite for an hour early this morning, eastward from opposite Slingerfontein and westward from the top at Coles kop, a fifteen-pounder shrapnel gun paying special attention to the sites of the Boers' guns which have been unusually active lately. The Boers hold a position half way on the direct road between Rensberg and Colesberg. They shelled Porter's hill yesterday ineffectually.

Modder River, Feb. 7.—General Macdonald maintains his position at Koodoosberg drift. His movement has evidently disconcerted the Boers, and at the same time it safeguards the operations of a portion of the Belmont garrison in the direction of Douglas, where there are still a few Boers. The British casualties till now are two men.

The Ninth lancers made several attempts to draw out the Boers, but were unsuccessful. The British hold the highest portion of the kopje, the Boers' position being on the lowest portion. Owing to the steepness of the southern slope of the kopje it is impossible to mount artillery. The usual daily shelling here continues. The outposts report that the Boers are making advanced trenches in the open plain in front of Magersfontein drift, presumably to prevent the British horse and field artillery from approaching within range of their positions.

Mrs. Shirley's Claim Rejected.

Boston, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Katherine Shirley's claim to the John Stetson millions has been thrown out of court. Mrs. Shirley, who is a Chicagoan, formerly lived in Kansas City. She set up a claim that she was a daughter of Kate Stokes Stetson, wife of the millionaire theatrical manager, and as such was an heir to his estate. Judge Blodgett of the superior court, however, decided that she had no standing in court. His announcement was merely an order to the clerk to enter a "non-suit" without explanation.

Two Railway Men Killed.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Two men were killed and three injured in a collision of two switch engines on the Wisconsin Central line during a dense fog. The dead are: John Hollwell, switchman on engine 129, right leg severed at knee and injured internally, died on the way to the Presbyterian hospital; Michael Lynch, switchman on engine 129, legs crushed and injured internally, died on train coming to Chicago shortly after the accident.

Coming West After a Legacy.

Middletown, N. Y., Feb. 9.—Willis Coleman, a Sullivan county school teacher, who recently received notice from Chicago that through the death of a distant relative he had fallen heir to a fortune of $500,000, has gone west to claim his money. The name of the person who bequeathed the money has not been made public.

THE FINANCIAL BILL

Occupies the Attention of the Senate—House Proceedings.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Almost immediately after the senate convened yesterday discussion of the financial measure was resumed. Allen concluded his speech, charging the Republican party with breaking faith with the people on bimetallism and systematically discrediting the work of the international bimetallic commission. Cockrell also addressed the senate on the financial bill, making a technical analysis of the house and senate measures. He charged that the senate substitute contained the initial movement toward the perpetuation of the national debt.

The house was in session an hour and a half yesterday and only minor business was transacted. The ways and means committee bill establishing tariff rates upon goods from Puerto Rico into the United States and vice versa was reported and chairman Payne ave notice that the bill would be called up next Thursday. The debate upon it will run for a week. The house did not adjourn over on account of the Lawton funeral and today will be given up to the consideration of private bills.

LOOKS LIKE MURDER.

Relatives of James Lewellin Want His Death Investigated.

La Crosse, Wis., Feb. 9.—Monroe county, this state, is torn up by what looks like a sensational murder. Late in October last a farmer named James Lewelin, of Waterloo, this state, went to Wilton, Monroe county, to buy a dairy farm. He had in his possession several hundred dollars. He went to a hotel, got mixed up in a game of cards and either lost the money or was swindled out of it.

Lewellin was found in his room with a bullet hole through his head and heart. The coroner returned a verdict of suicide. The family of the deceased was not satisfied with the verdict and detectives who have spent some weeks looking into the case now charge murder. The keeper of the hotel is Daniel Trump. The detectives claim to be able to name the alleged murderer and an arrest is expected.

Verdict for a Traveling Man.

Lebanon, Ind., Feb. 9.—The jury in the damage case of Mort G. Beckner against the Pennslyvania railway, returned a verdict awarding the plaintiff $1,000 damages. Beckner was ejected from a J., M. and I. train a little over one year ago. He claimed that he did not have time to present his interchangeable mileage and receive a ticket at the station when he boarded the train. He presented his mileage to the conductor, who refused to accept it, and ejected him from the train. The plaintiff is a traveling man, residing at Crawfordsville.

Dying of Poison.

Kokomo, Ind., Feb. 9.—Mel Bassett and James Mulvine, of this city, are thought to be dying and "Dr." Stevens is in a precarious condition. All are colored. Yesterday morning they cooked a quantity of pig's feet and potatoes in an unused kettle, that had been lying for months about a barber shop. Verdigris had gathered in the vessel, which had not been properly cleaned. It is supposed that the poisoning came from the acetate of copper.

Kills His Wife, Then Suicides.

Omaha, Feb. 9.—A wife murder and suicide occurred at Whitman, in Grant county, Wednesday night, James Robinson shot his wife three times and after three trials managed to put a bullet through his own body. Neither can recover. The shooting is supposed to have been the result of a family row.

Armed Bandits Rade a Depot.

Abingdon, Ills., Feb. 9.—The Burlington depot here was robbed by two men yesterday morning. The thieves drew revolvers and drove W. F. Eastin, night operator, and a student who was with him, into a freight car and locked them up. The robbers then blew open the safe and secured $110.

Big Fire at Red Wing.

Red Wing, Minn., Feb. 9.—The Minnesota Stoneware company's plant was entirely destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. The loss is over $75,000 and may reach $100,000; insurance, $42,000. The watchman who discovered the fire was severely burned.

Fire at Winona Mine.

Houghton, Mich., Feb. 9.—The general store of the Winona company at Winona mine was burned. The loss is $48,000, insured for $30,000. The postoffice was in the store and the mails were burned.

Tries to Commit Suicide.

Coloma, Wis., Feb. 9.—Miss Gertie Ingalls, aged 14 years, took laudanum with suicidal intent, but was saved by the efforts of physicians. The motive for the deed is not known

The treasurer of the Chicago Catholic Woman's League has announced that the net profits of the charity ball will aggregate about $13,000.

It is said Germany will not join France in the movement to reopen the Egyptian question.

A. M. Woolfolk, wanted in Chicago for bank robbery, has been arrested at Dallas, Tex.

Rev. John Kennedy, chairman of the Congregational Union of England and Wales, is dead at London, aged 87.

Miss Mabel Warner, of Grand Rapids, has been chosen soprano soloist for the Normal choir concert to be given March 6th.

The funeral of Louia A. Winters was held at the residence this afternoon. Deceased was 44 years of age. Consumption was the cause of death.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary E. Ludke, was held from the German church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. She was 21 years old and leaves a child one day old.

The overture for Hotel Topsy Turvy will not be played until 8:30 Saturday evening, thereby giving every business man an opportunity of witnessing the opera.

Not since El Capitan has an Ypsilanti audience had the privilege of listening to a comic opera. 'Hotel Topsy Turvy" abounds in beautiful music and the chorus and climaxes are said to be very fine.

A dancing party was given in Scott's hall last evening by a number of young people; the object being to secure funds to invest in coupons for the Telegram voting contest and to present the same to a certain one of the contestants

At the Congregational church parlors Tuesday evening Feb. 13, the Ladies of the Aid will give a penny social. You will be surprised at the many pretty things you can buy for a penny. Fancy articles, valentines and refreshments.

A jolly company of 35 surprised Harry L. Ostrander last evening. Progresive pedro furnished the entertainment of the evening. The prizes were awarded as follows: first prize to Mrs. Frank Joslyn and Bert Slayton; consolation prize to Miss Neat and Eugene Ostrander.

A party of 25 U. of M. students will have a banquet at the Hawkin's House this evening. It is somewhat of a feather in proprietor Jones cap that such a party should come to his house from a larger city than Ypsilanti.

ROBINSON HAS HIS FRANCHISE.

The Council Have Granted Right of way to the Belleville and Ann Arbor Electric Road.

The Aldermen Seem to Have Protected the City at every Vulnerable Point.

At a special meeting held in the city clerk's office last evening the common council formally granted to Washington I. Robinson, his heirs, successors and assigns, a franchise for the proposed Belleville electric road. The matter was settled by the aldermen in the space of perhaps 15 minutes; but for the hour and three quarters previous they had joined with a special committee in a thorough discusssion of the different sections of the franchise, so their action was not in the least precipitate. The council has given very careful consideration to the several clauses of the franchise and as far as can be seen by those who have looked into the matter they are fully protected at every point. The ordinance granting the franchise will go into effect ten days from the date of its passages, last evening; when, as far as Ypsilanti is concerned, work may be begun immediately. It is expressly stipulated that construction shall be commenced on or before May 1st, and that it shall be finished on or before October 1st: consequently if the promotres mean business at all Ypsilanti will soon have one more claim the to title of "railroad center."

At the committee meeting held prior to the gathering of the entire council Alds. Yost, Dawson, VanFossen, Worden and city attorney Green were present officially, and Alds. Huston, Ferguson, Moore, Schaffer and Lamb as interested spectators and as participants in the discussion on special invitation. The important addition made to the franchise by the committee was a clause added to section XVI to the effect that the railroad company shall be liable to damage brought to city water or sewer pipes by electrolysis caused by the electric current which passes through the company's rails. The question of electrolysis in one of the most difficult and most contested problems of modern times and Ypsilanti is fortunate in having it so satisfactorily disposed of in connection with the new road.

A change was made in section II to the effect that any other electric road company wishing to enter the city from the south may use the tracks of the Belleville Co. for a fair rental which shall be determined by three arbitrators, one to be selected by the council, one by the Belleville road and these two to select the third.

In the clause relative to fares an important addition was made to the effect that in the matter of the 1,000 mile coupon books no more than the actual number of miles ridden shall be exacted from the public, except that no less than a five mile strip shall be taken for a single ride.

Following are the more important points from the several clauses of the franchise as granted by the council:

Section I.

That Washington I. Robinson be allowed to construct, operate and maintain a single track street railway to enter the city at Ellis street to Harriett, thence to Washington street, thence to Huron street and thence along said street to the city limits. That any railway line or lines wishing to enter the city from a southernly, southeasterly or a southwesterly direction shall have joint use of the tracks of said grantee from the city limits to Ellis street and shall pay for same use a fair rental to be determined by a board of arbitration of three members, one to be appointed by the council, one by said grantee and these two members to appoint the third.

Section II.

That, "T," straight or griden-grovee rail be used as directed by the council. That the company shall pave between its tracks and for 18 inches outside when the city shall pave such street or streets.

Section III.

That road shall be operated by electricity or such modern motive power as the company shall deem expedient.

Section IV.

That freight shall be carried, subject to the regulation of the council.

Section V.

That the fare to and from any point in Washtenaw or Pittsfield townships be 5 cents; to and from any point in Ann Arbor or Van Buren township and city of Ann Arbor be 10 cents; that round trip to Detroit be 75 cents; that the round trip to Toledo be $1.15; that 1000 mile coupon works be issued and that actual number of miles shall be taken by the Company, except for a distance of less than 5 miles, when 5 miles shall be taken.

Section VI.

Cars shall display signal lights on front and rear ends during the night time.

Section VII.

On neglect to sound proper danger signals parties in charge of a car shall be fined up to $25.

Section VIII.

Disorderly persons may be ejected from a car.

Section IX.

Cars shall have right of way, except in case of fire apparatus.

Section X.

City to have right to lay gas, water or sewer pipes.

Section XI.

Company to have right to make use of trolley poles and wire, under the direction of the council.

Section XII.

Speed of cars shall be regulated by the council.

Section XIII.

Company shall keep that portion of the surface of the street within the rails and for two feet outside in good condition; and shall level banks of snow in this space and shall remove same, if necessary.

Section XIV.

Council reserves right to make further rules, regulations and to fix penalties for the violation thereof.

Section XV.

Franchise shall be forfeited on neglect of company to comply with its provisions.

Section XVI.

Company shall indemnify and save harmless the city of Ypsilanti for damage wrought by them; shall also bear expense of repairing water, gas or sewer pipes injured from electrolysis or any other cause resulting from the operation of the railroad.

Section XVII.

The Company shall give the city a bond of $10,000 to guarantee restoration of streets to proper condition. Company shall also widen any road bed and lay tile along the line of the railroad, if ordered by the council; said work to be under the direction of the council.

Section XVIII.

Ordinance shall take effect 10 days after its passage. Work of construction shall be begun on or before May 1, 1900 and shall be completed on or before October 1st. 1900, otherwise franchise shall be null and void.

In Justice Courts.

As predicted in The Telegram, William Bird Jr. was arrested yesterday for wheat stealing as he stepped from the county jail at the expiration of his sentence for the larcency of a halter. The warrant was served by deputy Buck, who by a clever ruse had before Bird's commitment to the jail, succeeded in inducing him to incriminate himself in the wheat affair A gold ring had been found in the bin from which the grain had been taken, and Buck cleverly brought it about that Bird acknowledge himself its owner. Bird was brought before Justice Childs this morning, and the case was set down for Monday, Feb. 19,

Charles Johnson pleaded guilty to assault upon his wife and was sentenced by Justice Childs to thirty days in the county jail. Johnson would have been given a longer term, if it were not for the fact that he is the complaining witness in the circuit court case of people vs. Frank White, assault with intent to do great bodily harm, which will come on in March. The assault by reason of which Johnson was deprived of his liberty was committed the night before his departure for a two weeks stay at Windsor. It was on his return from this Canadian sojourn that Johnson broke into his own house and was wounded by a revolver shot fired by Frank White.

The case of Anthony Burke, alleged assault upon Frank Kirk, was adjourned to Friday, February 23.

William McCoy pleaded guilty to assault upon Luther Mills and was fined $1.00 and costs by Justice Joslyn.

ANN ARBOR.

An effort has been started again to pave Liberty street and in a few days a petition will be circulated looking to this end. Today Mr. Schleicher is around with a sample of creosote block, which he said could be purchased at $1.75 f. o. b. This would make a saving of about $14 per thousand over brick.

Dr. George was asked as to the condition of Leonhard Gruner. Said he, "It is about the same as yesterday, although he had a fair night's sleep. It is too early yet to tell of the outcome. Mr. Gruner had all the preliminary symptoms of apoplexy. There was a slight hemorrhage of the brain. It will be some days before the case can be fully determined."

MADE MANY REMARKABLE STATEMENTS.

Mrs. Carpenter's Address on Spiritualism Partook of The Uncanny.

The Audience was a Large one, and Seemingly Very Much Interested.

Every available seat in Cleary college hall was taken last evening and an over flow gathering occupied the stairs and outer hall, the attraction being the address on "Spiritualism," delivered by Mrs. Marion Carpenter, of Detroit. The large audience was a most respectful one and listened to the remarkable statements made by the lecturer without either expression or looks of incredulity. Mrs. Carpenter is an excellent speaker and has a wide range of knowledge on her subject.

The meeting was opened by Miss Cutler, of the Normal, the vice-president of the Ypsilanti Spiritulistic society, following which the conservatory quartet—known as Mrs. Pease's quartet, rendered a selection. In connection with the invocation, which was delivered by Mrs. Carpenter, an exceedingly curious incident arose. The prayer was a very beautiful one, in many respects unlike the petitions of the Christian churches, and the audience was guilty of the singular offense of applauding. The applause was a spontaneous outburst from all parts of the hall and was continued for several moments. The speaker and the members of the spiritualistic society were at a loss whether to take the hand clapping as an insult or a tribute of praise, but the latter thought prevailed.

From the address, which was an expounding of the principles of spiritualism with concrete illustrations and with the relating of incidents bearing on the subject, the following is taken. No attempt is made to weave them into a connected whole.

Crime is the result of ignorance, and can be cured alone by science. Religion can be explained by science, but spiritualism is the only religion which demonstrates its own foundation.

Spiritualism originated in a methodist family, but its range is now the civilized world.

"Miracles" are really but the result of laws not known to the world. The souls of men may appear to man, as Christ appeared to his disciples. We are spirits now as much as we ever shall be, but our bodies cover us like so many garments.

Spiritualism disbelieves in a personal God, but teaches the existence of a universal God, as shown in the outer world. It holds man to personal responsibility for wrong doing, but does not believe in a personal devil.

A practicul result of spiritualism will be that telephone and telegraph service will be discarded, as the more enlightened man will be able to communicate with his fellows, no matter how great a distance intervenes, by telepathy. The law of vibration explains why persons are naturally attracted or repelled. Not a soul will be eternally damned. God's love is like a mother's love.

Knowledge is the lever which lifts the mass of superstition from the world.

Christ is a principle, not an individuality.

Spiritualism is not a matter of mere faith, but admits of tangible proof.

The socalled dead may return; there being no separation between the spiritual and physical worlds.

CAPT. AND MRS. FINLEY REPORTED DROWNED.

The Rumor had its Origin in a New York City Paper.

No Word of Such a Disaster has Reached the Captain's Parents.

A report has reached Ypsilanti that Captain and Mrs. John Finley have both been drowned. Captain Finley is on sick leave from his regiment in the Philippines and a few months ago paid a short visit to his parents in this city. The report is said to have originated from a dispatch to a new York City paper. The father and mother have received no confirmation or denial of the rumor.

VISITED BY A TORNADO

Collinsville, Ills., Struck by a Cyclone Which Nearly Destroys the Town.

MANY PEOPLE SERIOUSLY INJURED

Storm Strikes Early in the Morning, Leveling Houses and Other Buildings, Leaving Piles of Debris in Its Path—Considerable Damage to Property in St. Louis—One Woman Becomes Entangled with a Live Wire and Is Killed.

Collinsville, Ills., Feb. 9.—This little city narrowly escaped destruction by by a tornado yesterday. Nine persons were injured in the immediate vicinity of the village, some of them fatally, and there was much damage to property. The miners who live on the outskirts lost the most by the wind. A group of three fine residences standing on a hill was reduced to splinters.

Storm Strikes at 2:30 A. M.

About 2:30 a. m. the storm was felt at a point one mile south of Collinsville. The first house demolished was that occupied by Frank Kobart. He, his son and daughter were buried in the debris and it was some time before they were rescued, bruised and bleeding, from the wreckage. They were carried to a neighbor's house and given such care as could be had until physicians should arrive from the village. From this place the wind swept to the north, its path being west of Collinsville, by a quarter of a mile, and the last trace of the storm is to be observed at Hightsville, a manufacturing suburb, one mile away.

Other Houses Demolished.

After the Kobart house a group of three dwellings was felled by the wind. Although the small dwellings were completely demolished all the occupants escaped injury, except John Marquette. The Hight Club Coal company building was the next to be attacked, the immense smokestack being leveled to the ground and the walls somewhat damaged. From there the wind swept to the Vandalia tracks, laying waste telegraph poles for a distance of a quarter of a mile. Beyond the Vandalia tracks stood a group of large frame houses, occupied by the Lawrence, Odderhole and Fix families. The storm leveled them and nothing is left save a mass of tangled wreckage. It was here that Odderhole and Lawrence received their serious injuries, and here also that the members of the Fix family were wounded.

STORM IN ST. LOUIS.

Much Damage Done to Property All Over the City.

St. Louis, Feb. 9.—Considerable damage to property in various parts of this city and vicinity was wrought between 2 and 4 o'clock yesterday morning by a wind storm that reached a velocity of sixty miles an hour and was of the nature of a tornado. Between those hours the barometer fell to 29.35, the lowest point ever reached in this vicinity, according to the weather bureau officials here. Previous to the wind storm a terrific thunder storm had raged for several hours, the rain falling in torrents. The rainfall was 1.9 inches.

Mrs. Susie Thompson became entangled in a live wire, which had been blown down at Winnebago street and Marine avenue, and before she could be rescued was killed. The greatest damage was to property in the burned district, between Franklin avenue, Morgan street, Third and Sixth streets. Here $20,000 worth of property was destroyed. At 827 North Third street a four-story building was blown down. It was next door to one of the buildings destroyed in Sunday's fire, and its walls had been weakened.

Signs and trees were blown down all over the city. At the corner of Sixth and Olive streets a flagstaff was blown from the top of the Commercial building to the pavement, smashing a large clock in its descent. Trains coming in yesterday morning were late as a result of the washouts and other obstructions. At Jefferson City, Mo., the wind and rain storm was one of the most severe ever felt there. It was followed by a fall of thirty-two degrees in tempature and a snow storm, which is now raging. Anton Heister, aged 65, was blown from his door onto a stone walk and killed.

Smallpox at Mapleton, Ia.

Onawa, Ia., Feb. 9.—There are fifteen or twenty cases of smallpox at Mapleton, in this county. One death has occurred already. A member of the state board of health, who was there Wednesday, expects more cases, owing to lax quarantine regulations. Danbury, on the north, has quarantined against Mapleton, and other towns will follow. A general vaccination order has been issued by the state board of health.

Admits Dying Statement.

La Crosse, Wis., Feb .9.—After the sharpest and hardest-fought legal battle of the Kehr murder case Judge Wyman, despite protests and objections of the defense, admitted and allowed District Attorney Morris to present to the jury the dying statement of William Kehr. This was considered vital to the case of the prosecution and the defense made a desperate effort to shut it out.

Burlington Will Make a Change.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 9.—It is announced that during the coming season the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road will change from narrow to broad guage, build a connecting link from Tracy to Oskaloosa and use the new line for Des Moines-Chicago business. This will make a shortening of fifty miles in the Des Moines-Chicago route. The new road built will amount to thirty miles.

Insane Man's Terrible Deed.

La Crosse, Wis., Feb. 9.—Edmond Ott, Middle Ridge, this county, a few miles north of here, yesterday morning shot and badly wounded his wife, killed his young child, set fire to his house, which was totally destroyed, and then committed suicide, sending a bullet through his own brain. He was a carpenter by trade and insanity is thought to have been the cause of the tragedy.

MISSING WITNESSES REPORT.

Prosecution in Carterville Riot Case Receives a Surprise.

Vienna, Ills., Feb. 9.—In the Carterville riot case, where twelve union miners are charged with the murder of five negroes on the streets of that city Sept. 17 last, State's Attorney R. R. Fowler yesterday asked the court that a continuance be granted the prosecution on the ground that four witnesses—V. W. Williams, Mr. and Mrs John Elliott and Oras Williams—could not be secured. The court gave the prosecution until this morning to file its affidavits. A few hours later V. W. Williams and son, Oras Williams, arrived in the city, much to the surprise of the state. The defense was informed last night that Elliot and his wife were both in Herrin, and that Elliot was at work at the Herrin mine and would be in court today.

FAILURE CAUSES A SENSATION

Society and Commercial Circles Are Shocked by Hambleton Collapse.

Adrian, Mich., Feb. 9.—The failure of Hambleton & Co. created quite a social and commercial sensation here. The family came here from Philadelphia a year and a half ago, taking the Metcalf bankrupt stock, and created the impression they possessed great wealth. They lived liberally, have entertained freely and soon received recognition as clever and cultured people.

Mrs. Hambleton seems to have been the company, and on her petition the United States court appointed Harlan P. Devock, of Detroit receiver. The schedule puts liabilities at $49,762.25; assets, $26,900. Local liabilities and claims not yet filed will raise the total considerably in excess of $50,000. The only Chicago creditors are Belding Bros. & Co. and the Nanatuck Silk company.

Costly Fire Escanaba.

Escanaba, Mich., Feb. 9.—The National Cooperage and Woodenware company's monster plant is a total ruin. The origin of the fire at present is not known, although it is supposed to have caught in or near the engine room, and with a high northeast wind had no trouble to go through the entire plant. At no time could the fire be got under control. The loss is at least $250,000, and the insurance is probably not half that much.

New Mill at Houghton.

Houghton, Mich., Feb. 9.—The Baltic company has let a contract at $55,000 for structure of a new four-stamp mill at the mouth of the Salmon Trout river, Lake Superior, opposite the mill of the Atlantic company. The cost of grading and foundations will bring the net cost of the mill to be about $85,000, exclusive of machinery.

Smallpox at Unionville.

Springfield, Ills., Feb. 9.—An alarming report has been received from Unionville, Massac county, where there are said to be more than twenty-five cases of smallpox. It is stated that no efforts are being made to quarantine the patients.

Miner Killed at Bessemer.

Bessemer, Mich., Feb. 9.—Andrew Ready, a miner, was killed at Tilden mine by falling through a hole.

Sewing Machine

To the most popular Saleslady, Clerk, Cashier or Bookkeeper in Ypsilanti.

You know what the 1900 Rambler Bicycle is.
You know what the Eldridge B, Drop Head Sewing Machine is.
You know what the Encyclopaedia Britannica is.

We purchased the Bicycle and Sewing Machine from the Samson Bicycle Works, and have his guarantee that they are O. K. By purchaseing our gifts at home we are enabled to allow the winner of the contest to exchange the article won and get its full cash value on any other article for sale at the Samson Bicycle Works. The contest began . . . .

Friday, Jan. 5, 1900

and ends

Sat., Feb. 10, 1900,

The only conditions to the contest are:

1. The contestants shall be ladies in the employ of Ypsilanti business firms as salesladies, cashiers, clerks or bookkeepers.
2. All voting must be done on the coupons appearing in this advertisement, each coupon being good for one vote.
3. All coupons must be sent to our office at least every third day in order that contestants may know where they stand.
4. The lady receiving the highest number of votes shall be the winner.
5. Any person can vote as often as they desire, so long as they use a coupon for each vote.

The name of contestants will appear daily in The Telegram, together with the number of votes received.
